Titre	Entry level Recruiter (multilingual speaker) - Prague
Description du poste	Do you want to join a company that gives you all the possibilities to succeed? Are you motivated to work in a role where you are financially rewarded for your work? We are currently looking for motivated candidates to join our team in Prague! You will join us in our state-of-the-art office in Danube House and receive all the necessary training to kick-start your career in recruitment. The Role This is a role where you will be essentially growing your own business, speaking to international businesses every day and determining their recruitment needs. It will be up to you to then go out to the market and find the right talent for your client's needs. If you are someone that likes to be rewarded for their hard work, then this is the job for you. You will take home a large share of the profits that you bring into the business. Type de contrat Stage Description de la société Become a recruitment expert NonStop Consulting, one of the fastest growing recruitment firms, has an equal passion for connecting top talent with top employers as it has for training and developing top talent for itself. As a leading name in recruitment within the pharmaceuticals, medical devices, chemicals, care, education, technical, digital and finance sectors, we are continually striving to raise the bar of recruitment industry standards. As part of that, we are dedicated to continuous training and development for our employees. Why NonStop? We realize there are many choices for those interested in getting into recruitment, but not many of them can offer you the genuine life experience of working in such an international environment alongside exceptional rewards, training, career development and a genuine community of like-minded people. NonStop is a business of real personality and of real opportunity; a company on a mission. Our business model is disrupting the recruitment industry and providing us an exceptional growth platform to become one of the world's largest recruitment businesses. We are going global and are looking to find motivated minds in order to be our next business leaders around the world. NonStop culture and values Committed to organic growth, creating a truly meritocratic culture and developing the most rewarding career in the recruitment industry, NonStop's ethos is best summed up by our motto: Develop, Grow, Succeed. <input type="checkbox"/>Develop: In addition to formalized training and development, you'll receive coaching and mentoring from more senior colleagues, ensuring individual and company knowledge and experience is passed on to new generations of NonStop colleagues. <input type="checkbox"/>Grow: Utilize the skills and knowledge you have developed to lead by example and motivate those around you. Inspiring others to achieve their personal best means they, you and the business grow. *<input type="checkbox"/>Succeed: As each person learns to develop and grow themselves and others around them, new layers are added to the business, new people are promoted and everyone involved finds success.
